HUW’S ADVICE

Place the story, which you think is the most important, at the top of the running order

Think about the stories they need or want to know about

You could place a lighter story, or a weather report, at the end of the running order

Where possible, group stories together

Include a mixture of interesting stories, some local, national and international news

Think about putting someone in charge to make the final decisions

Be flexible and prepared to alter the running order as the news changes
