

Activity: news judgement

Put a tick next to the headlines that you think are genuine news stories, and a cross next to the ones that aren't.

Dolphins swim in the sea	Dinosaur bones found on UK beach
Chocolate tastes great	Children protest to save the rainforests
Children warned over mobile use	The world is round
UK to be battered by storms	Couple win £125m in lottery
Lessons protect kids from crime	Boy gets wet in the rain
African famine kills thousands	Hollywood's golden couple split
London riots shock Prime Minister	Max is most popular name for pets
Dog chases cat	Wind blows leaves everywhere
Mobile phones are sold in shops	Northern Ireland peace talks signal hope
Hats and scarves keep kids warm	Reality TV star tops the charts
Australia bush fire kills ten	Tomato soup is put in a can
Election result a big shock	Chicken lays a big egg shocker
Computers have keys and buttons	Money doesn't grow on trees
Floods devastate north of England	Internet music sales beat singles
Fast food is bad for your health	Prince Charles is Queen's son
National recycling scheme kicks off	Wayne Rooney has hair transplant
Kids test £3m tree house	Wayne Rooney scores winner for England
Athletes wear trainers	Politicians argue over PE in schools
Cinemas show good films	Super sister pulls family from flames
Usain Bolt breaks 100m world record	JLS enjoy singing and dancing