

Worksheet 1.1: Good/bad headlines

Put a tick next to the good headlines. Put a cross next to the bad headlines.

Dolphins swim in the sea

Chocolate tastes great

Children warned over mobile use

UK to be battered by storms

Lessons protect kids from crime

African famine kills thousands

Dog chases cat

Mobile phones are sold in shops

Hats and scarves keep kids warm

Australia bush fire kills ten

Election result a big shock

Computers have keys and buttons

Floods devastate north of England

Fast food is bad for your health

National recycling scheme kicks off

Kids test £3m tree house

Athletes wear trainers

Cinemas show good films

Girl stubs toe and it hurts

Biggest ever pumpkin grown by kid

Dinosaur bones found on UK beach

Children protest to save the rainforests

The world is round

Boy gets wet in the rain

Hollywood's golden couple split

Max is most popular name for pets

Wind blows leaves everywhere

Northern Ireland peace talks signal hope

Reality TV star tops the charts

Tomato soup is put in a can

Chicken lays a big egg shocker

Money doesn't grow on trees

Internet music sales beat singles

Prince Charles is Queen's son

Kylie has a sister called Dannii

Politicians argue over PE in schools

Super sister pulls family from flames

Justin Timberlake sings and dances

Clocks tell the time