Mr Ashley Highfield	Other	Other Expenditure	January Sky Subscription - [section 40(2)]	30/01/2004	52.00	The BBC decided that it should pay for a variety of subscriptions to interactive and broadband services for Ashley Highfield in his role as Director, FM&T and the leader of the division responsible for R&D. These subscriptions were paid for where the BBC deemed that they would not in normal circumstances been taken for personal use. This was in order for Mr Highfield to be fully informed about emerging digital and interactive technology. The address of the property has been redacted.
